

8005

IInd Professional (B.D.S.) Examination, 2001
General & Dental Pharmacology

Time : 3 Hours

Note : Attempt all questions.

Max. Marks : 50

Part A

1. What are Broad-Spectrum antibiotics? Give the mechanism of action, therapeutic indications and adverse effects of tetracycline.
2. Explain Why?
- (a) Ethyl Alcohol is given in methyl alcohol poisoning.
- (b) Failure of oral contraceptive agent in patients receiving rifampicin.
3. Write short notes on :-
- (i) Oral dosage forms
- (ii) Side effects of drugs
- (iii) Astringents

Part B

1. Discuss factors modifying drug effect?
2. Explain why?
- (i) Nimesulide is preferred over aspirin for the treatment of toothache?
- (ii) Succinyl choline can cause respiratory apnoea in susceptible individuals
- (iii) Atropine is used for preanaesthetic medication
3. Write short notes on :-
- (i) Ciprofloxacin
- (ii) Diazepam
- (iii) Ranitidine

3(01)S