

Printing Pages : 1

Paper Code : BDS-303

(C) (SVSU:2021-2022/R)

Enrollment No.

|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|--|

BDS
3rd YEAR EXAMINATION
Oral Pathology & Oral Microbiology

[Time: 3:00 Hrs.]

Max. Marks:70]

NOTE: All questions are compulsory. Draw diagrams wherever necessary.*Section A

1. Classify the cysts of orofacial region. Discuss in detail etiology, clinical features, radiological features and histological features of Radicular cyst? (10 marks)
2. Short answer questions (5X5=25 marks each)
  - a. Histological features of fibrous dysplasia.
  - b. Aphthous Ulcer
  - c. Median Rhomboid Glossitis.
  - d. Oral manifestations of Tuberculosis
  - e. Radiological features of Ghost teeth

Section B

3. Discuss in detail the etiology, clinical features, histopathology and treatment of Oral Squamous cell carcinoma of tongue. (10 marks)
4. Write short notes on (5X2=10 marks)
  - a. Schwannoma
  - b. Lactobacillus test
5. Write short notes on (3X3=09 marks)
  - a. Clinical features of Scurvy
  - b. Garre's Osteomyelitis
  - c. Internal Resorption
6. Objective type questions (1 mark each)
  - a. Fothergill's disease is also known as
  - b. Cupid's bow is a feature due to
  - c. Malignant tumor derived from smooth muscles is known as
  - d. Crew cut appearance is seen in
  - e. Eruption cyst is considered as a variant of
  - f. 'Tadpole cells' are seen in histopathologic examination of

*****