

B.D.S. IVth year Prof

7888

BDS Examinations, 2001
IVth Professional
Paper Oral Medicine

Time : 3 Hours

Note : Attempt all questions.

Max.Marks : 50

Part A

1. Classify white lesions of oral cavity. Briefly describe etiology, clinical features, management and DIO of leukoplakia. 8
2. What are the implications of cardiovascular disorders on oral tissues and describe the management of patients with cardiovascular disorders requiring teeth extractions. 8
3. Write short notes on
 - (i) Sialography 3
 - (ii) Bite wing x-Ray 3
 - (iii) Types of Radiograph techniques 3

Part B

1. Discuss the clinical features and management of squamous cell Carcinoma of Tongue. Briefly write the TNM classification of Oral Carcer. 8
2. Define the ulcer. Classify the types, explain the clinical features of aphthous ulcer and Distinguish these lesions with lesions of herpes simplex. Write the treatment modalities of aphthous ulcers, 8
3. Write short notes on :
 - (i) Types of Dental Radiographic examinations 3
 - (ii) Chemistry of developing and fixation process in radiology 3
 - (iii) Radiographic appearance of cementoma and radicular cyst. 3

7 (01)

B.D.S. - IVth Year Term

Oral Medicine & Radiology

Final Year BDS Terminal Examination 2000-2001

Max. Marks: 50

PART - A

ORAL MEDICINE

Classify white lesions of the Oral Cavity. Describe the etiology, clinical features, management & D/D of Lichen planus. Mark (8)

Discuss briefly the etiology, clinical feature and treatment of myofascial pain dysfunction syndrome. Mark (6)

Write Short Notes on :-

1. Etiology of Leukoplakia
2. Oral Manifestation of anemia
3. Desquamative gingivitis
4. Thrush

Marks (4x4=16)

PART - B

ORAL RADIOLOGY

Discuss the differential diagnosis of multilocular radiolucent lesions in the angle of the mandible.

Mark (8)

Write short notes on :

1. Sialography
2. Bite wing radiograph
3. Developer & fixer
4. Orthopantomogram

Marks (4x3=12)